

2024 Booklist

Adequate stationery is of utmost importance when it comes to facilitating the learning process. Having the right tools at your child's disposal and imparting the significance of maintaining them properly can significantly improve their overall learning experience and organisational skills.

Parents and caregivers are to purchase the following items which are readily available for purchase, either in physical stores locally or conveniently online through trusted suppliers like www.shop.romaprintersandstationers.com or www.warregoofficechoice.com.au.
